

LEONARD WARREN KRUG
1957 – 2024

Leonard Krug, Husband, Father, Grandfather, Brother, Friend, and Colleague passed away on October 6, 2024 at the age of 67.

As an avid sportsman and fishing advocate Leonard left us doing what he loved spending his days on the ocean and rivers. Born in Ashland Oregon, Leonard spent most of his life living in the Southern Oregon area. Graduating Ashland High School in 1976 he attended Southern Oregon State College for two years with a major in Wildlife Sciences and a minor in Music until he chanced upon a temporary summer position with Pacific Power and never went back. He climbed the ranks from Meter Reader to Journeyman Lineman. If you spent any time with Leonard, you would know he always had a joke or two up his sleeve to lighten the mood like, "Old Linemen never die, they just phase out."

Leonard was a lifelong learner and his passion was always around hunting and fishing. After retiring he maintained a passion for volunteerism and working in service of others. He joined the Oregon South Coast Fishermen and was a founding member and President of the Oregon Anglers Alliance. He brought the Recreational and Commercial Fishing communities together with Legislators, County and State Officials and all levels of Government along with Tribal Agencies to provide and protect sustainable fishing opportunities and resources for everyone.

Leonard is survived by his wife Anna Krug and 4 children; Chris Williamson (Jennifer), Andrew Krug, Christa Brasseur (Beaux), and Jeff Clark (Hayley); and 7 grandchildren, as well as four siblings where he "ranked" number four out of five; Teresa Hudkins (John), Mike Krug (Kay), Deanna Price (DeWayne), and Angela Benn (Don). A powerful force for positivity in the lives of many he was always there for advice, a sympathetic ear, or to share anecdotes about his own experience. His values, commitment to excellence, and love for life survive on in his family; both genetic and extended. With fins and without.
